

Cristian Timofticiuc

- Holds a BA degree in English and Romanian Language and Literature and an MA degree in Applied Linguistics and English Language Teaching. Since 2017, he has been teaching English to primary school pupils, RO
- A member of the EuroEd Foundation's department of European projects
- As a project team member, he presents experience in creating various educational resources for ongoing Erasmus+ projects, as well as managing the administrative tasks of project implementation. As a trainer, he presents experience in preparing and delivering public presentations and trainings at national and international level. His areas of interest vary from literature, music and cinematography to ICT, teaching English and volunteering for various events and organisations