

Gileta Kierienė

- A project coordinator at Soros International House, LT
- Has over 15 years of experience dedicated to adult education for social change
- She contributed to the initiation and successful implementation of many projects at both national and international level with a variety of funding streams and stakeholders.
- Holds a Master's degree in physics from Vilnius University

